

GOOD SENSE

Modern contemporary living at Astoria Plaza

This season, everyone needs a sanctuary—a place one can retreat to when stress and problems seem too much to handle. For some people, this quiet spot should provide relaxation but, at the same time, be located somewhere accessible for work-related meetings and get-togethers. It makes perfect sense to find a place where you can enjoy calm yet still be available for business matters. If you are looking for a venue like this, then Astoria Plaza is the place for you.

Located in Ortigas Center, one of the Philippines' progressive business and commercial districts, Astoria Plaza is a private niche in the heart of the city. The hotel is ideally located a short distance away from top business addresses, academic institutions, shopping malls, entertainment facilities and sports facilities, such as the Asian Development Bank, Philippine Stock Exchange, World Bank, University of Asia-Pacific, Philippine Sports Arena (PSA), and SM Megamall, among others. It is also less than seven kilometers from the Makati Central Business district and less than 15 kilometers away from the domestic and international airports.

With rooms ranging from a minimum of 60 square meters to a maximum of 130 square meters, its spacious suites offer the freedom to enjoy living space separate from workspace. Designed by Ivy and Cynthia Almario, the rooms exude a quiet elegance that combine the space and comfort of a home with the convenience of a deluxe hotel. There are also facilities that can be enjoyed within the hotel like a gym, a lap pool, Stresscape spa and massage center, Santis Delicatessen, McGill Cosmetic Surgery Clinic, Travelnet, Genesis Valet Shop and Laundry Service and Salon de Astoria are some of the shops that guests can go to for their needs.

Further, Astoria Plaza has a special holiday room package and food and beverage promotions at Café Astoria. The hotel also came up with a Christmas Goodie Counter and a puto bumbong station especially for this season.
